China Daily Asia Leadership Roundtable

China-Philippines Dialogue 2017

09:30–14:00 | Oct 26, 2017

Asian Institute of Management

Makati, Manila, Republic of the Philippines

Building on last year's success, the 2nd edition of the Dialogue aims to strengthen communications and trust, deepen understanding of cooperation opportunities between China and the Philippines in broad range of areas, which include tourism, human resource development and promoting personnel exchanges, energy cooperation, trade facilitation and many more opportunities. According to recent data provided by the Philippines Department of Tourism, it showed Chinese visitor arrivals jumped by 76.5 percent to 85,948 in January 2017. The warming of relations between China and the Philippines is expected to further bolster the tourism industry and significantly contribute to its economy.
